

Song for Scotty

(a.k.a. Walk on Little Boy)

Jan Harmon - 1965

Freely ♩ = c. 130

1. Walk on lit-tle boy, we've been too long to-ge-ther.
 Don't cry lit-tle boy, it's time I set you free. Walk on lit-tle boy, I've seen the change of wea-ther. Walk a-long, run a-long, and don't you wait for me. Walk a-long, run a-long, move a-long,
 and don't you wait, don't you e-ver wait,
 don't you wait for me.

2. Walk on little boy, and don't be empty hearted.
 A world filled with joy is there if you can see.
 Walk on little boy, and though our paths have parted,
 you just walk along, run along, and don't you wait for me.

3. The road of life that stretches far behind me,
 is strewn with friends I've known from day to day.
 But most of all, I bless the dawn you found me,
 to hold my hand until you learn the way.

4. And now, walk on little boy,
 and keep this brave world spinning.
 For life is no toy that spins the dreamer free.
 Walk on little boy, each day is a beginning.
 Walk along, run along, move along,
 and don't you wait, don't you ever wait,
 don't you wait, for me.
