

Fly Away

Jan Harmon - 1985

$\text{♩} = \text{c. } 180$ E^7 (sim.) Cho.

1. Sa - die had ba - bies nine. Six, a - live and three are gone. Fly a - way

Fly a - way Ba - by, ba - by fly a - way.

1.-10. 11.

2. Num - ber Ba - by, ba - by fly a - way.

2. Number one . . digs the coal.
Lungs, black as the Dorset wool.
CHO.

3. Number two . . dig and plow.
Call the cow . . chase the crow.
CHO.

4. Number three . . gone above.
Dresses, never grown out of.
CHO.

5. Number four . . lost at sea
in the U.S. Navy.
CHO.

6. Number five . . Marine Corps.
Glory-medals from the war.
CHO.

7. Number six . . weave and spin.
Babies four . . no husband.
CHO.

8. Number seven . . born at night.
Never saw the morning light.
CHO.

9. Number eight . . in L.A.
Swears she won't come home again.
CHO.

10. Number nine . . at home still.
Writes a man in Evansville.
CHO.

11. Sadie had babies nine.
Six, alive . . and three are gone.
CHO.