

The Singer

(for Bill Bonyon)

Jan Harmon - 1985

$\text{♩} = \text{c. } 130$ Cho.

Let us sing! Come and sing e - very old song you know! Though the sin - ger may come and the sin - ger may go the song will shine on like the light from a star! So let's light up this dark with our sing - ing!

1. Bro - thers and sis - ters, I come now to you. Let us lay down our fears, there's much work to do. To - ge - ther, with - out sus - pi - cion and hate we can save us a world, while the tal - kers de - bate! And, let us...

2. Brothers and sisters, can we trust our fate
to the ones with the power to negotiate?
In their speeches so fine, they defend empty creeds ..
And the bargain with missiles, as if they were beads.

CHO

3. Brothers and sisters all over this earth ..
let us tell the true story at night by the hearth.
And look then to Rigel and Aldebaran .. reminding the Singer .. to bravely sing on!

CHO