

In Case of Nuclear Attack

a.k.a. "Number Fifteen Sunscreen"

by Jan Harmon - 1985

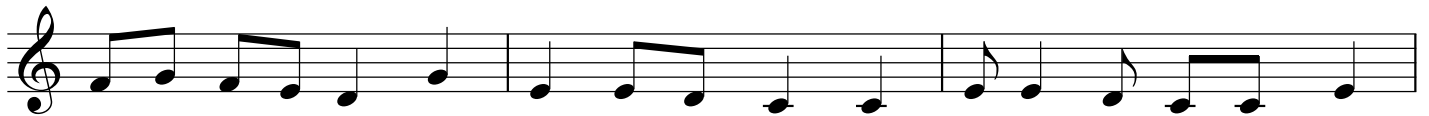

① In case of nu - cle - ar at - tack.. be - fore you e - vac - u - ate .. the

E. P. A. has said, you will not be dead if you fol - low the ad - vice they ad - vo - cate. Just ..

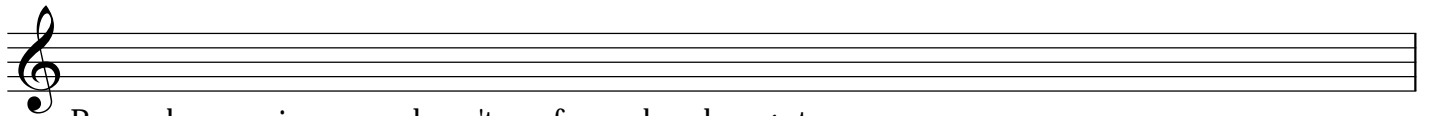

CHORUS:
Rub on "Num - ber Fif - teen" sun - screen, call your mo - ther, co - ver up the pool ..

pick the kids up at school .. wear your sun - glass - es .. put on clean un - der - wear ..

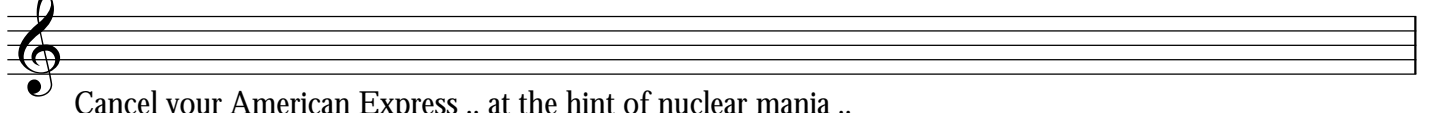

re - turn all li - bra - ry books .. and wa - ter the plants! ② Re -

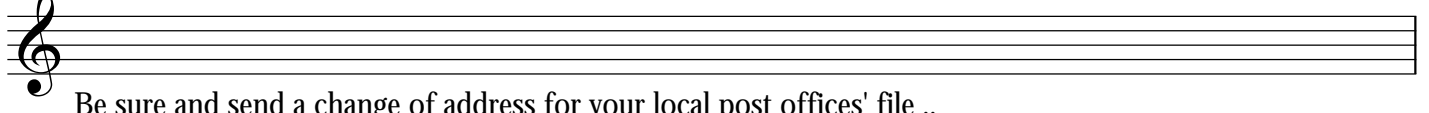

Remember your insurance doesn't pay for nuclear damage to your car.

② So .. push it off a cliff or a mountain if you hear annihilation isn't far!
And .. CHORUS

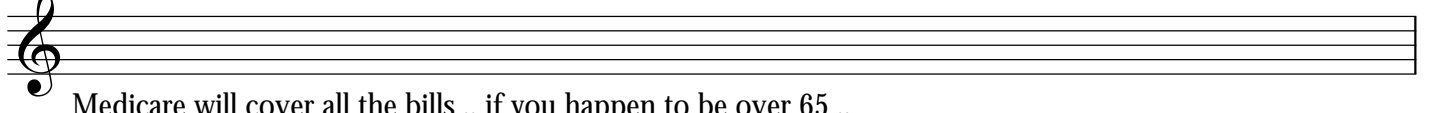

Cancel your American Express .. at the hint of nuclear mania ..

③ For you may be vaporized on Chicago's South side .. but your card could still turn up in Lithuania!
And .. CHORUS

Be sure and send a change of address for your local post offices' file ..

④ For in a holocaust .. all your mail could get lost .. and end up in a dead letter pile.
And .. CHORUS

Medicare will cover all the bills .. if you happen to be over 65 ..

⑤ And if you're on vacation when you die of radiation .. you'd get promptly paid .. if you were still alive.
Oh .. CHORUS
